We're looking for a special type of talent to join our Jardine Executive Trainee Scheme (JETS). At Jardines, we have a name for these graduates that excel – Rare Talent.

If you're a recent graduate with true leadership ability, along with the drive to push yourself and challenge the status quo, the boundless curiosity to learn new things, and the vision to realise a better future, we challenge you to apply to JETS.

EMBARK ON YOUR JETS 6-3-2-1 JOURNEY

The immersive JETS experience is a blend of interactive virtual and face-to-face learning sessions, on-the-job exposure, mentoring, coaching and job-relevant coursework that will provide you with broad exposure to the Jardines business. It'll be a challenging life, and it won't be for everyone. You'll be asked to maximise every learning opportunity while being held accountable for business results.

The JETS journey will allow you to build out management capabilities and cement business fundamentals. You'll experience critical business and leadership lessons in three years across two business units. The cherry on top? You'll also get one overseas assignment designed to give you exposure in both mature and developing markets.
